MICHELLE HUTCHINGS-MEDINA

Mi-SHELL HUTCH-ings muh-DEE-nuh

Our next speaker has survived cancer, deep personal loss, and more than her share of public battles.

If resilience were a sport, she would be in the hall of fame.

But she doesn't just endure. She's found a way to translate pressure into performance and pain into purpose.

She is a national storytelling champion, a high-performing sales leader, and yes... a proud cat lady.

And you're about to see that being a cat lady can, in fact, be cool.

Please join me in welcoming Michelle Hutchings-Medina.
